

We're grateful to the dedicated and inspiring attendees who visited with us at the combined expo.

Our canopy designs showed how creatively shade products can be incorporated into the overall outdoor décor both on board and on island. The durable construction, custom capabilities and short lead times attracted designers and purchasing professionals for cruise lines and domestic as well as international hotel properties.

