

MIAMI

What a great turn out at this year's NEWH Miami show!

It was wonderful to connect with so many of the designers and purchasing agents who work in our tropical backyard. For 25 years, we've built lasting relationships with many of the leading players in the local hospitality industry. We were delighted by the enthusiastic response designers had to our new introductions and pleased to learn about many of their projects that will need umbrellas and cushions soon.

