

At this year's Palm Beach International Boat Show, FiberBuilt displayed our three new furniture collections along with our popular pavilion and umbrellas.

Our new distributor Killerdock, who manufactures fish cleaning stations and outdoor furniture, displayed two of our Market models. They're secured in the welded umbrella stands that are part of the station accessories for shade while cleaning your catch.

And it was under a FiberBuilt umbrella that anyone needing a break from the sun and heat could find relief.

