

FiberBuilt was a proud sponsor of the AHLA Design & Construction Committee Meeting held on July 28th at the Viceroy hotel in Washington, DC.

This full day event was called to establish best practices relating to design and construction, identify problems and challenges, share ideas, and source legislative opportunities to tackle regulatory requirements, and strengthen the messaging and positions of the hospitality and lodging industry.